

BELZ MUSEUM

of Asian & Judaic Art

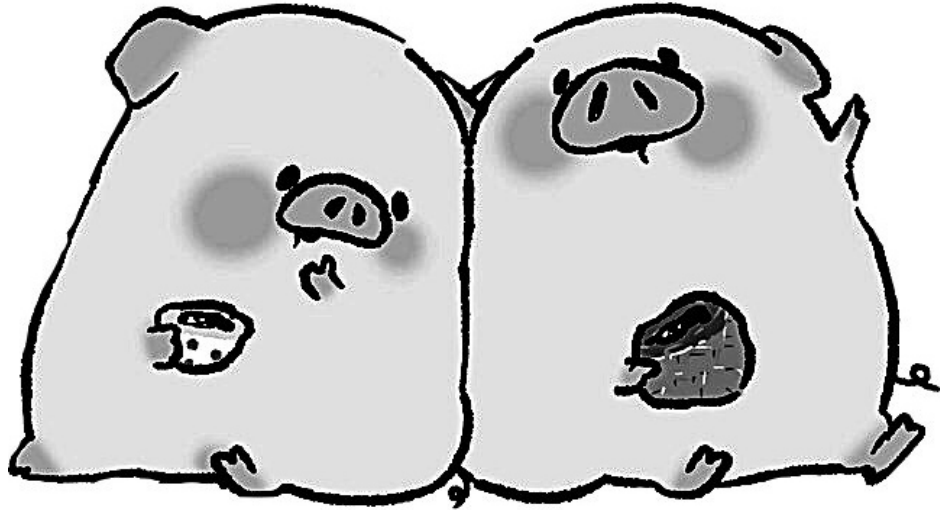

AT PEABODY PLACE

All art entries must be at the Belz Museum on or before Friday, December 14, 2018
For more info, please call museum staff at (901)-523-2787

15th Annual Chinese New Year Art Contest Love, Balance, Happiness; Year of the Pig

Guidelines for Entry:

ALL guidelines must be followed, or the artwork will not be eligible for participation.

1. Artwork must be mounted to a piece of BLACK foam core board or poster board that measures 16" x 20" in size – No matter the size of the art, all artwork MUST be submitted on the SAME size board – The board can vertical or horizontal.
2. The image must relate to the theme of the contest which is, "Love, Balance, Happiness; Year of the Pig". Each entry should present a portrait of a pig that includes Chinese symbolism and themes.
3. Each Artwork should be submitted individually. There is no category for collaborative or group projects.
4. Each entrant should submit only one piece of art; Cut out and attach the entry form below to the back; Be sure it is COMPLETELY filled out.
5. Enter the work in one of the four categories listed:
Category A (K - 2nd grade) Category B (3rd – 5th grade)
Category C (6th – 8th grade) Category D (9th – 12th grade)

豬

Love, Balance, Happiness; Year of the Pig

Entry Form

Student Name / Age: _____

Title of Work: _____

Guardian / E-mail: _____

School Name: _____

Teacher / E-Mail: _____

Category: _____

Public Voting will be at the Museum:
December 16, 2018 –
February 3, 2019

VOTING IN THE MUSEUM LOBBY
119 S. MAIN ST.,
CONCOURSE LVL
MEMPHIS, TN 38103