

BELZ MUSEUM

of Asian & Judaic Art

AT PEABODY PLACE

All art entries must be at the Belz
Museum on or before

Friday, December 20, 2019

For more info, please call museum staff at (901)-523-2787

16th Annual Chinese New Year Art Contest A Peaceful New Year for the Rat

Guidelines for Entry:

ALL guidelines must be followed, or the artwork will not be eligible for participation.

1. Artwork must be mounted to a piece of BLACK foam core board or poster board that measures 16" x 20" in size – No matter the size of the art, all artwork MUST be submitted on the SAME size board – The board can vertical or horizontal.
2. The image must relate to the theme of the contest which is, "A Peaceful New Year for the Rat". Each entry should present a portrait of a rat that includes Chinese symbolism and themes.
3. Each Artwork should be submitted individually. There is no category for collaborative or group projects.
4. Each entrant should submit only one piece of art; Cut out and attach the entry form below to the back;
Be sure it is filled out COMPLETELY.
5. Enter the work in one of the four categories listed:
Category A (K - 2nd grade) Category B (3rd – 5th grade)
Category C (6th – 8th grade) Category D (9th – 12th)

白鼠

Art Contest Entry Form: A Peaceful New Year for the Rat

Student Name / Age: _____

Title of Work: _____

Guardian E-mail: _____

School Name: _____

Teacher E-Mail: _____

Contest Category: _____

Public Voting will be at the Museum:

December 22, 2019
– January 19, 2020

FIND THE MUSEUM @
119 S. MAIN ST.,
CONCOURSE LEVEL
MEMPHIS, TN 38103