

BELZ MUSEUM of Asian & Judaic Art

Book an Emperor's Lunch!

On the Concourse Level of the Pembroke Square Building, surrounded by a world-class collection of 19th century Chinese and rare Judaic art, lunch is being served. The Belz Museum of Asian and Judaic Art dishes out a delicious combination of aesthetic and savory cultural experiences.

The Emperor's Lunch is designed for no more than 76 people, seated in the Dynasty Banquet Room and Lobby. Reservations should be made no later than one week before the desired date. The cost is $20 and includes a catered box lunch and beverage, preceded, or followed by a docent-led Asian Tour of more than 900 works of art, including exquisite jade and ivory carvings, Tang Dynasty pottery, cloisonne, and silk furnishings and clothing.

A large portion of the Chinese art is from the Qing Dynasty (1644-1911). There's also a Woolly Mammoth Tusk Gallery and Judaic Gallery, all filled with an amazing assortment of artistry, craftsmanship and history – all awaiting discovery at 119 S. Main St. Young and old alike are welcome. Please see the attached menu for selections and email or fax to the Belz Museum to reserve your date and time.
